HBacon. It was reported in Newberry Friday that there had been a heavy decline in the price of bacon. Investigation proved this to be a mistake. There is no bacon in town; and Mr. J. N. Martin says that the firm in Louisville, Ky., from which he has bought 300,000 pounds the past year wrote him that in a few days there would not be enough bacon in that city to grease a frying pan. Meat is selling in Newberry at-12 1-2 cents, and has been at that figure since Friday; but it is pork, not bacon, and has been killed ten, twenty or thirty days.

No Coroner Elected in this County. The State Board of Canvassers has decided that the election of Clerk, Sher iff and Coroner at the late election was not authorized by law, except in Berkeley and one or two other Counties. In this County there was no election for Sheriff or Clerk, but there was for Coroner, and Mr. E. C. Longshere was elected. The State Board decides that there should have been no election in this County for that office this year. Their view of the matter is that the term of office coptinues four years, and that a person elected to fill a vacancy is elected for only the unexpired term. The facts in this case are: James Eichelber was elected Coroner in 1876 for four years; and be resigned at the end of two years. At the general election in 1878 Mr. Longshore was elected to fill the vacancy. In 1880 there was no election for Coroner, the idea being that Mr. Longshore's term lasted four years from the time of his election. The Board says that he was elected to fill the unexpired term only, and that there ought to have been an election in

The Governor will either appoint a Coroner or order a special election.

As neither of you editors attended the State Fair perhaps you would like to know how your friend Sniffles fared, and all that I have to say on this part of the subject is that I left here without breakfast, had no time to think of dinner, and that supper was very unsatisfying, in fact it was not a square meal, and consisted of an oblong slab of quarter-done beef, without bread or crackers. Bread was out, and so wers crackers, and the hungry crowd of 15,000 people surged and danced around Mc-Kenzie's, Pollock's and Pat Mechan's till you'd a thought that the Salvation Army was on a spree. It was a glorious sight. This was not the only trial your friend endured though, for I came across a man who was giving the crowd a health lift that is, for a dime you took hold of two handles of the machine and lifted as much as you were able. I declined for some time, because not having any breakfast I felt kinder debilitated, at length, however, the elequence of the fellow induced me to try. I tried, and I jerked her up about 400 lbs., but instead of letting the confounded thing down with both hands I let go one; and had double weight or 800 lbs. in my left fist. I felt something pop and thought it was one of my suspender buttone, it wasn't though, but something

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.

The December Number brilliantly close the volume of this favorite magazine, and we remind our readers that now is the time to subscribe. The opening article is a most interesting history of The Bank of England, by Richard B. Kimball, there are nine illustrations with a picture of the founder, William Peterson. N. Robinson contributes 'Segovia,' and charmingly decribes that quaint Spanish city. Off will well repay the reader, as will also 'A Beauty of the Last Century,' 'King Herring,' 'Mecca and its Pilgrims,' 'Seeing by Telegraph,' etc., all of which are finely illustrated. The department of fiction is very interesting, for, besides the continua-tion of 'A Whited Sepulchre,' there are admirable stories, sketches, etc., by Oscar Zurich, K. V. Hasting: Marguerite Aymar, Rleanor Kirk, etc., etc. The poems are b favorite writers, several of them beautifulv illustrated. There are al-o a variety of short articles, paragraphs, etc. on all sorts of subjects, and exceedingly entertaining and instructive, The 128 pages quarto are crowded with good things, literary and artistic. There are over 100 embellish ments, and a handsome colored frontispiece, entitled 'Little Sunbeam.' A single number is only 25 cents, or $3 a year, post paid. of val. NEW YORK, 1883. More people have read THE Sun during the year just now passing than ever before since it was first printed. To other news paper published on this side of the earth has been bought and read in any year by so many men and women.

We are credibly informed that people buy, read, and like The Sun for the following reasons, among others:

read, and like THE SUN for the following reasons, among others:

Because its news columns present in attractive form and with the greatest possible accuracy whatever has interest for human-kind; the events, the deeds and misdeeds, the wisdom the philosophy, the notable folly, the solid sense, the improving non-sense—all the news of the busiest world at folly, the solid sense, the improving hear sense—all the news of the busiest world at present revolving in space.

Because people have learned that in its remarks concerning persons and affairs The Sun makes a practice of telling them the exact truth to the best of its ability three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, before election as well as after, about the whales as well as about the small fish, in the face of dissent as plainly and fearlessly as when supported by general approval. The Sun has absolutely no purposes to serve, save the information of its readers and the furtherance of the common good.

Because it is everybody's newspaper. No man is so humble that The Sun is, indifferent to his welfare and his rights. No man is so rich that it can allow injustice to be done him. No man, no association of men, is powerful enough to be exempt from the strict application of its principles of right and wrong.

strict application of its principles of right and wrong.

Because in politics it has fought for a dozen years, without intermission and sometimes almost alone among newspapers, the fight that has resulted in the recent overwhelming popular verdict against Eobesonism and for housest government. No matter what party is in power, The Sun stands and will continue to stand like a rock for the interests of the people against the ambition of bosses, the eneroschment of monopolists, and the dishonest schemes of public robbers.

All this is what we are told almost daily by our friends. One man holds that THE SUN is the best religious newspaper ever published, because its Christianity is unti-luted with cant. Another holds that it is inted with cant. Another holds that it is the best Bepublican newspaper printed, because it has already whipped half of the macals out of that Party, and is proceeding scainst the other half with undiminished vigor. A third believes it to be the best magazine of general literature in existence, because its readers miss nothing worthy of notice that, is current in the world of thought. So every friend of The Sun discovers one of its many sides that appeals with particular force to his individual liking.

If you already know The Sun, you will observe that in 1883 it is a little-better than ever before. If you do not already know The Sun, you will find it to be a mirror of the sun, you will find it to be a mirror of all human activity, a storehouse of the choicest products of common sense and in agination, a mainstay for the cause of hor rhment, a sentinel for genuine Jet est government, a sentine to gottom fersonian Democracy, a scourge for wicked ness of every species, and an uncommonly good investment for the coming year.
